

Supplement 2. Completely Fulfilled Accreditation Standards Items

Standards items

1-1-1. Does the medical school have a mission and does it include contents addressing the social responsibility of the medical school and the need to serve public interest?

1-2-1. Is the work for the medical school's administration appropriately divided?

1-2-2. Is the medical school's staff work defined and are there sufficient administrative staffs for each individual work area?

1-3-1. Is the medical school's financing system for medical school administration appropriate?

2-3-10. Is the clinical clerkship conducted in a way that enables students to acquire the doctor's role?

3-1-1. Does the medical school have admission policies that clearly describe student selection methods?

3-1-3. Are the student selection methods, procedures, and criteria of the medical school appropriate?

3-2-6. Is the medical school encouraging students' sound professional activities in and outside the school and providing appropriate guidance and support?

3-3-2. Is the medical school providing students with appropriate financial support?

3-4-2. Does the medical school analyze the results of the national medical exam and exert efforts to improve any issues?

4-2-1. Is the faculty producing appropriate research achievements?

4-2-2. Are the research funds received from outside the medical school appropriate?

4-2-5. Does the medical school guarantee the faculty's social services activities and participation in academic societies?

4-3-4. Do the faculty achievement evaluation standards include social service?

4-3-7. Is sexual harassment prevention training conducted?

5-1-2. Does the medical school have sufficient supporting facilities for student education?

5-1-4. Does the medical school efficiently manage the facilities and equipment for student education and welfare?

5-1-6. Does the medical school have a convenient academic information system to support education and research?

5-1-7. Does the medical school have a convenient education information system?

5-2-2. Does the medical school have sufficient research resources for faculties?
